Shark Bay

Monkey Mia

Monkey Mia
Dolphin Resort

For the better

Welcome

In the heart of Western Australia's Shark Bay, Monkey Mia is a place of recognised natural beauty and a World Heritage landmark. A popular escape for visitors from around the world, Monkey Mia is a premier natural dolphin sighting area where visitors can experience the mystical world of wild bottlenose dolphins.

Located at Dolphin Beach, famous for its kilometres of secluded crystal blue waters and pristine white-shell beaches, Monkey Mia has attracted schools of dolphins to its tranquil shores daily for more than forty years.

Enjoy the warmth of a mediterranean-style climate with sunshine and blue skies throughout the year, complemented by tranquil beaches.

Experience one of the most diverse marine environments, home to a variety of unique wildlife including turtles and dugongs. Enjoy getting up close and personal with the dolphins directly in front of the RAC Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort, the only accommodation at Monkey Mia, and only a handful of steps from your absolute beach front accommodation.

Attractions

Dolphins

Approximately eight dolphins visit Dolphin Beach each day however there are often more and the current record stands at 26 dolphins all visiting at once.

Dolphin Feeding

Just a few steps from the resort, you can see the beautiful wild dolphins of Monkey Mia. With feedings every day from approx. 7.45am - guests are randomly chosen to assist the ranger to feed the dolphins. Operated by Department of Parks and Wildlife.

Shell Beach

Visit the world's only beach made entirely of tiny cockle shells. The shells are the size of your fingernail and the beach is over 100km long.

Hamelin Pool - Stromatolites

See what earth looked like 3.5 billion years ago... Stromatolites are the beginners of life on our planet. The original generators of oxygen, they created our oxygen atmosphere. They also began the evolution of life from the water to the land.

Francois Peron National Park

Untouched natural vegetation at its best is just inland from Monkey Mia. Enjoy a full day trip with an experienced guide who will educate you all about the park wildlife and history. (4WD access only).
