

Relax in the heart of the South West at RAC Margaret River Nature Park

Welcome to RAC Margaret River Nature Park, nestled amidst the tall timber of the Wooditjup National Park (formally Bramley), just 2km from the Margaret River town centre. We offer a beautiful nature based eco-experience with a range of attractions and activities, providing adults and children alike the opportunity to holiday with nature and experience the vast beauty first hand.

Explore all the delights this great region has to offer including wineries and breweries, fresh produce, beaches, caves and other natural wonders. Be sure to gaze at the star-studded sky, toast marshmallows over a campfire, go for a bushwalk through the lush Karri, Jarrah and Marri forests or hit any of the awesome mountain bike trails right outside the gates. Whatever it is you're looking for, you'll be sure to find it here.

By Car:

Located in the Wooditjup National Park in Australia's South West, a short three hour drive south of Perth city (280km), and just 2km easy walking distance from the Margaret River Town centre.

About the park

Surrounded by scenic walking trails, a myriad of sensational bike trails, and just a short walk from the Margaret River town center, we offer a beautiful nature based eco experience with a range of attractions and activities on your doorstep. Enjoy a traditional camping experience on our powered sites or treat yourself in one of our other accommodation options including an eco-lodge, safari tents, dorm rooms and 2 bedroom cabins. Bring a group of friends, throw in bikes for the kids and enjoy nature's wonderful playground.
