

Relax by the seaiside at RAC Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort

RAC Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort is situated between fiery red cliffs and the crystal blue waters of the Indian Ocean on Western Australia's Shark Bay, famed for its absolute beach front location overlooking the beach. Located within the Shark Bay UNESCO World Heritage area, the resort is renowned as Australia's most reliable destination for dolphin visitations, where dolphins have visited the shores for over 40 years. Shark Bay is home to a variety wild life species such as dolphins, dugongs, loggerhead turtles and migrating humpback whales. Offering spectacular views and wildlife interactions, Monkey Mia is the perfect haven to get back in touch with nature.

About the resort

In November 2018, the Resort was transformed from rustic beachside getaway to a contemporary Resort. Our guest can now enjoy brand new modern facilities and accommodation options. The exciting development project included:

- » 12 new 2 and 3-bedroom beachfront villas
- » Expanded campground with the addition of ensuite sites
- » New camp kitchens, recreation room and ablutions
- » Addition of a second swimming pool and children's wading pool
- » New Pirate themed playground
- » New Reception building, General Store and Malgana Art precinct.

Our accommodation options range from; beachfront villas, newly refurbished studio rooms, dorms to large powered and unpowered sites, some with beach views. Treat yourself to a tantalizing meal at one of two onsite restaurants, relax by the pool or hire a canoe and explore the marine park on your doorstep. Pet friendly caravan and camping sites available.
