

Relax on the Coral Coast at RAC Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort

RAC Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort is situated between fiery red cliffs and the crystal blue waters of the Indian Ocean on Western Australia's Shark Bay, famed for its absolute beach front location overlooking Dolphin Bay. Located within the Shark Bay UNESCO World Heritage area, the resort is renowned as Australia's most reliable destination for dolphin visitations, where dolphins have visited the shores for over 40 years. Shark Bay is home to a variety wild life species such as dolphins, dugongs, loggerhead turtles and migrating humpback whales. Offering spectacular views and wildlife interactions Monkey Mia is the perfect haven to get back in touch with nature.

About the resort

As the sole accommodation in the area, the contemporary Resort provides guests with everything they'll need. Enjoy modern facilities with a state of the art camp kitchen, recreation room and ablutions, accommodation options that range from beachfront villas, newly refurbished studio rooms to large powered and unpowered sites, some with beach views. Pet friendly caravan and camping sites available.

Food and dining options include the Boughshed Restaurant, Cafe (seasonal) and the popular recently redeveloped Monkey Bar. Plus, there's plenty of family activities like kayak and SUP hire and two swimming pools for everyone to enjoy.
